All events are individually quoted to take into account location, access, ratios, time & client requirements.

"Ian, I wanted to personally pass on my thanks to you and your great team. From what I saw you guys offered a huge amount of games and activities for the kids allowing our parents and even myself as the organiser to feel at ease as I knew the kids were in good hands!

Your team were all professional and amazing with the kids who attended so thank you again. Would definitely use your team again and also recommend for the future." - Mel Taylor, EWM
